The St. Louis Dental Education and Oral Health Clinic is a partnership between A.T. Still University’s Missouri School of Dentistry & Oral Health (ATSU-MOSDOH) and Affinia Healthcare. Clinic operations will be supervised by Affinia Healthcare, and ATSU-MOSDOH will develop and manage third- and fourth-year dental curriculum for student dentists.

The new 79,000-square-foot facility is a collaborative and innovative dental education and oral health clinic providing the highest standard of academic program, scientific inquiry, and service for dental students and exceptional patient care to diverse patients in an evolving healthcare environment.

Mission statements
A.T. Still University of Health Sciences serves as a learning-centered university dedicated to preparing highly competent professionals through innovative academic programs with a commitment to continue its osteopathic heritage and focus on whole person healthcare, scholarship, community health, interprofessional education, diversity, and underserved populations.

Affinia Healthcare’s mission is to provide high-quality healthcare and exceptional service, while promoting healthy lifestyles.
